

Metropolitan Racing Season Ends in a Blaze of Glory Before Record Crowd at Empire City Track

RACING'S WINDUP DRAWS BIG CROWD

George Smith Wins the Yorktown Easily From Fast Field at Yonkers.

OVER THERE ALL THE WAY

Game Cock and African Arrow Furnish Hot Duel, Former One Winning.

George Smith, the fast but erratic black horse owned by John Sanford, won the last handicap of the season on the metropolitan turf yesterday afternoon at the Empire City track. He was on his real good behavior and defeated a select field of handicap horses in the Yorktown without being extended. He finished two lengths ahead of A. K. Macomber's Star Master, which took place honors three lengths ahead of Richard T. Wilson Jr.'s Corn Tassel.

To see this and five other races one of the largest crowds of the season turned out to bid the thoroughbreds au revoir until next spring. The little Yorktown course was filled to overflowing. Every seat in the grand stand and club house was occupied, while hundreds stood in the aisles and on the lawns.

Crowd Sings "Auld Lang Syne."

When "Tap" sounded after the last race the thousands rose as one and sang a lusty round of cheers and then joined in singing "Auld Lang Syne." The season had been the best and most successful in modern times, a decade and a half of the crowd regretted to see its end.

Those who made the trip saw some excellent sport. There were no half-raised finishes such as thrilled the throngs earlier in the week, but every race resulted in a keen contest.

The Yorktown was the feature. It was for three-year-olds and upward, at one mile and a furlong, and in quest of the $2,000 purse nine of the best horses in training went forth to do battle. A. K. Macomber's pair, War Cloud and Star Master, were the favorites and were heavily backed at 7 to 5. All the racegoers knew of the speed and stamina of George Smith and knew also that he could win if he would do his best. But he is such an erratic fellow he had only a few friends and was a lukewarm second choice at 2 to 1.

When it came to racing the result was never in doubt. George Smith, which had No. 1 position at the post, seemed more eager to run than to mull and went away with his field without any urging. Once in his stride Frankie Robinson took him off the pace and held him in fourth position and clear of the others where he would not be bumped and knocked out of his stride. With nothing to interfere with his long strides George Smith sped along under a stout pull, while Joseph E. Widener's Naturalist stepped in front at a fast pace.

Kept Winner Under a Pull.

When straightened out in the back stretch Loftus sent War Cloud to the front, but Robinson made no effort to chase him. It was too soon to let George Smith down and he held Mr. Sanford's horse under restraint, while War Cloud opened up a gap of two lengths on Star Master, which was in second position. Bounding the bend for home Robinson gave George Smith free rein and in a few jumps he was in second place and only a length behind War Cloud.

Entering the stretch Loftus Cloud quit. As he faltered George Smith took command and breezed the remainder of the way to an easy victory.

The Champion Handicap for two-year-olds was won by W. R. Coe's imported colt Over There. He broke from an outside position on his toes and assumed command before the first turn, where he had been covered. Once in front McCrete had little difficulty in keeping him going fast enough to win by a length from A. K. Macomber's pair, War Cloud and Star Master. The fifth race was a duel between Herbert L. Pratt's Game Cock and C. E. Lerch's African Arrow on the distant Avenue. Game Cock was the favorite, but African Arrow was the favorite, but Game Cock had a host of supporters. The pair left the barrier together and raced stride for stride for a mile and a half, neither gaining so much as an inch. The brush around the crowd to a high pitch of excitement and they began cheering before the contest was one-quarter finished.

Draws Away in Back Stretch.

Up the back stretch the two horses continued their stirring race, with Game Cock leading by a length and a half. At the half of the race Game Cock began to draw away, with the result that the lead for home saw him in on the rail a length in front of his opponent.

African Arrow challenged when the home stretch was reached, but Game Cock held his ground and won by a length. Game Cock had little difficulty in keeping him in front to the judges' stand. J. W. Hatch uncovered a sterling two-year-old colt in the third race, while Drummond, a bay son of Ouden and Quebec. Before the race he was "outed" around the course as a good thing and was heavily backed by the crowd, with odds of 8 to 1. As soon as the barrier went up Drummond shot him to the front and kept him there to the end, where he was half a dozen lengths in front of his opponent.

Belgians Good at Soccer.

LONDON, Oct. 12.—A Belgian army soccer football team is now touring England playing the English and other teams, with the sanction of the British military authorities. The Belgians recently won an international match from one of the crack English teams in France, while both were awaiting orders to go to the front, and the British Empire has not yet recovered from the shock. Being good fighters the Belgians have not yet recovered from the shock. Being good fighters the Belgians have not yet recovered from the shock.

POLY PREP'S TEAM OUTRUNS BOYS HIGH

Parker Kirby Finishes First Despite Accident.

Poly Prep's cross-country team yesterday defeated the harriers from Boys High in a cross-country run over the Prospect Park three and a half mile course. Poly returned the low score of 17 as against 41 by Boys High.

The winner turned up in Parker Kirby. He took the lead at the start and only once did he relinquish it. This was at the three mile mark when he twisted his ankle and dropped back to third place. However, he only remained in this place for a short distance, as he was out in front again before another 100 yards had been covered. He won by fifty yards over a team mate, Hallis Taylor, in 29 minutes 11 seconds.

Beckers, another Poly boy, finished third. The order of finish:

"Sun" Smokes Golf Match Proves to Be a Real Corker

Kammer and Boyd Beat Kirkby and Hobens Over Fox Hills Links After Playing Three Extra Holes and Raise More Than $700.

In a match requiring three extra holes, A. P. Kammer and Tom Boyd, representing the home club, defeated Oswald Kirkby and Jack Hobens over the links of the Fox Hills Golf Club yesterday.

It remained for Boyd to rise to the occasion, getting a 3 at the third hole, after a quiet hole had finished all square on the home green. This exhibition was for the Sun Race, and more than $700 was raised.

It was better team work that won for the Fox Hills pair. Had it not been for the beautiful golf of Kammer going out the States Island champion and his partner, Kammer would have been in a hole instead of 1 up. On the homeward journey, however, the home "pro" made few mistakes.

On the other hand, the visitors played an individual game. Kirkby had many good holes, though there never was a time when he got a par hole that Jack was not with him. The Englewood professional played golf that would have done credit to a Vardon, going out in 34 and back in 36 for a 70, three strokes better than par. Incidentally that was the best he has ever done.

In Lead at Third Hole.

The home pair broke into the lead at the third hole, when Kammer brought off quite a putt for a 3. Boyd's second shot left him nearer to the hole, but he didn't have to try for his putt. Halves followed until the sixth, when all fell green on their approaches except Hobens, who pitched to within twenty feet of the pin. He got a 4 there, the Fox Hills man getting a 3, and Boyd's side, Kammer had a 73, Boyd 76 and Kirkby 77.

Kirkby was in a hole at the seventh and eighth holes, but Kammer "colored" the long ninth. This hole is 639 yards, and Hobens drove such a long ball that the rubber core overran the fairway well down the slope toward "Hell's Kitchen." Although he had a bad hanging lie to tackle, the Englewood "pro" brought off the shot in regular style, the ball stopping less than a hundred yards from the green.

Kirkby was on his third shot and couldn't do better than the 6, while Boyd got a 5. Hobens and Kammer were about equidistant from the cup on their third shots, Hobens being slightly away. His fifth shot for a 4 failed by the turn of the ball and then Kammer rolled his in for a 4. That placed the Fox Hills team one up at the turn. They had a best ball of 35 out to the other side's 34.

All Play Close Together.

Kammer got a half in 4, with the Englewood players at the tenth, and they all had 44 at the eleventh. Boyd followed until the sixth, when all fell green on their approaches except Hobens, who pitched to within twenty feet of the pin. He got a 4 there, the Fox Hills man getting a 3, and Boyd's side, Kammer had a 73, Boyd 76 and Kirkby 77.

MISS BJURSTEDT IS DEFEATED AT LAST

With Wright She Loses to Miss Goss and Hall for Red Cross at Hoboken.

On courts that hold a singular place in American tennis history Miss Eleanor Goss and Walter Merrill Hall scored a notable victory in mixed doubles yesterday afternoon. In the feature match of a programme for the benefit of the Red Cross at the Castle Point courts of the Hoboken Tennis Club, where the first international matches in America were played, the New York State champions defeated Miss Mollie Bjurstedt and Heals C. Wright, 6-1, 6-0, 6-1.

Home Hole Proves Close.

The home hole is 350 yards, and all four got away beautiful drives. Kammer had the shortest ball, and his second shot was a trifle lucky, the ball hitting the top of the bunker in front of the green and bounding on to within twenty feet of the hole. The other three all got on the green nicely, Hobens having the best approach, his ball stopping about a club's length from the pin. After the first hole, when Kammer brought off quite a putt for a 3, Boyd's second shot left him nearer to the hole, but he didn't have to try for his putt. Halves followed until the sixth, when all fell green on their approaches except Hobens, who pitched to within twenty feet of the pin. He got a 4 there, the Fox Hills man getting a 3, and Boyd's side, Kammer had a 73, Boyd 76 and Kirkby 77.

FORDHAM ROUNDING TO UNDER SISKIND

Maroon Eleven, Away to Be-lated Start, Will Make Up for Lost Time This Week.

OPENING GAME SATURDAY

Under Eddie Siskind, the former Maroon star, Fordham's football squad is working out daily on Fordham Field and early this week Coach Siskind hopes to select his first string eleven and tune up the machine with scrimmages with the scrubs. On account of Fordham's late entry on to the gridiron this season, coupled with confusion resulting from setting the military curriculum running smoothly, Maroon football conditions still are in a rather elementary stage. Longer practice periods will be allotted the eleven this week and football will be in full blast.

Manager Kelly practically has completed the schedule. Six games will be played. The main attraction will take place on Thanksgiving Day, when the Maroon's old rival, Georgetown, will be met on Fordham Field. The other teams on the schedule are Grant State College, November 16, at Fordham Field; St. John's College, November 23, at Fordham Field; Springfield Training School, November 16, at Fordham Field; Boston College, November 23, at Boston (pending); Georgetown, November 28, at Fordham Field.

In Capt. Frisch's opinion, a corking player around whom to build his team. Frisch is a star in all departments and would fit in on any eleven. He is a capable leader and runs the team to perfection. Few of the other members of the squad are seasoned players but there are several youngsters who show rare promise and Fordham is hopeful of success in its coming games.

Next Saturday's game with St. John's will offer a good line on what is to be expected from Fordham in football this season. Siskind only has a week to whip his team into shape for the game with St. John's, but he hopes to have a fairly well drilled eleven for the fray. With the exception of the contests with St. John's and N. Y. U. no other games have been arranged. Negotiations are being carried on with Villanova for a game on Thanksgiving Day and it is thought there will be no trouble booking the unfilled Saturday dates throughout the season.

PICK UP AID

In the hardest workout of the season the Fordham S. A. C. eleven assembled the Prep school youngsters all over Fordham Field yesterday and gave Second Race a good line on what the players the Varsity will use in the opening game against the Granite State eleven next Wednesday. Long runs by Capt. Frisch and Maher and splendid work on the line by Harden, Cinnell and O'Hare featured the play.

From the present outlook the Maroon team will be made up of light but speedy runners. The average weight of the eleven is 165 pounds, and that of the backfield 151 pounds. As every position is open because of the enlistment in some branch of the service of practically the entire last year's squad with the lone exception of Capt. Frisch, who will take care of right half back, the candidates are having a merry fight to fill these vacancies.

The squad has been cut to thirty men. Coach Siskind will line up the Varsity for the first game on Saturday, October 30, from the following men: Capt. Frisch, Ryan, Brown, Cummings, Chinnam, Gilmarin, Barnes, Gannon, Manly and Gantly, backfield; Garvey, Perria, Carcello, Mark and Maher, end; O'Hare, Van Wic, Harden, Rellly and O'Connor, tackles; Callan, Lonsardi, Drye, Walters, Cinnell, Shapiro and Leidinger, guards; and Halligan, Mulry and Goldin, centre.
